On 09/14/2025 at approximately 2300 hours, I responded to [redacted] regarding a battery that just occurred.

[redacted]

Upon arrival, I made contact with a W/F, identified as Ghada Maghrebi, who advised me that she and [redacted] Suzanne Pingel, had a dispute over Pingel trying to put up a camera in the camera area of the house and Maghrebi did not want to put the camera up. When asked about what happened to the victim's, Maghrebi stated that the victim had intentionally and repeatedly struck herself on the face to cause injury to herself and began screaming about how Maghrebi struck her and that she was going to [redacted]. Maghrebi denied ever striking the victim and was adamant that the victim struck herself. There is a video camera inside the residence facing the common area and Maghrebi stated that the video would be able to prove her story but when the video was reviewed it did not show anything proving or disproving her statement.

After speaking with Maghrebi, I spoke with the victim who provided a similar story in the fact that she was wanting to put a camera up in the corner of the back hallway and Maghrebi did not want to. Maghrebi took down the camera and a struggle occurred between the two as the victim tried to put the camera back up. During that struggle the victim believes that Maghrebi intentionally struck her on the face which caused a minor cut on her left upper cheek. The victim does not want to pursue charges at this moment[redacted]s [redacted] and stated that if another incident occurs then she will consider filing a request for prosecution. Sgt. Howell approved the complaint withdrawal, which was later placed at the District One office.

Both parties were provided a case number and the victim was provided a victim's rights pamphlet.

BWC video is available.
